BEER ^{AND} CIDER

- TERRY'S PILSNER Terry's Pilsner is brewed by the Yardley family at the foot of Rye Lane using only the purest Peckham spring water. Terry's Pilsner has a unique, fresh and ultra clean taste. A pint of Premium Pilsner served with South London swagger. 6.5
- GUINNESS is an Irish dry stout that originated in the brewery of Arthur Guinness at St. James's Gate, Dublin, Ireland, in 1759. 6.5
- LONDON PRIDE A beer of the people, this famous ale even found its name on the streets of the capital. 'London Pride' was a suggestion by a member of the public in the 50s, inspired by a flower of the same name that somehow survived - thrived, even - in war-time London. 5.5
- ASPALL CIDER A crisp, medium dry cyder with a delicate aroma and taste of fresh pressed apples. Crafted at the original Cyder House, Suffolk. 5.5
